Letter No 70 of 4th May 1888, from the Deputy Commissioner
Muzae District.

(2) Letter No 122 of 25th May 1888, from the same.

With the first of the letters quoted above, the Deputy Commissioner submits an application for Pension on behalf of Raja Pillay, Head
Accountant Muzae District Office and with the second letter that of A. Charamihalhar, Deputy Acct^y
of the same Office

duly verified and reported on by the Comptroller in both cases.

2. The total qualifying Superior Service put in by Raja Pillay is Rs. Rs. Rs.
26-9-0 and that by Narasimhalhar

noted below.

4 Service on pay Rs 50 from 1st September 30-10-15

3. The Pension allowable to Raju Pillay under the rules as reported by the Comptroller is Rupees 35 per mensem and that to Nara-simhaiah Rs 25 per mensem, computed in both cases at half of the average annu-
-ments drawn during the last 5 years of service, i.e. half of Rupees 70 in the case of the former and of Rupees 50 in that of the latter.

4. But the Deputy Commissioner states that Raja Pillay & Narasimhaiah were drawing a salary of Rs 75 and 60 respectively prior to September 1879; when they were reduced by Rs 5 in the former and Rs 10 in the latter case owing to reduction of establishment. He therefore recommends that half pensions calculated upon the higher rates of pay drawn by them prior to September 1879 may be sanctioned; and adds that the concession sought by the applicants was granted to one Venkataswamiiah late accountant in the Mysore District Treasury who was similarly situated and that the claim of Narasimhaiah was promised consideration by Govt when his application for pension was received.

5. In Venkatramaiah's case, the period from 1st September 1879 to 12th June 1882, during which he was on a reduced pay Rs. 25 owing to reduction of establishment was ordered to be regarded as time during which he drew Rs. 30 per mensem and the pension calculated accordingly vide Pro. No. $\frac{4190-1}{183}$ of 8th November 1883.

6. In the communication noted in the margin, Narasimhaiah was informed through the Deputy Commissioner that his claim to have his pension calculated upon the salary he drew before the reduction of 1879 would be considered when his application for Pension was received.

* No. 107 (Camp) of 21st Nov. 1881 to the Deputy Commr. Mysore S.D.

7. The pensions calculated, as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner, upon the higher rates of pay drawn by them prior to September 1879 would amount to Ruppes 37-8-0 per mensem in the case of Raju Pillay and Ruppes 30/- in that of Narasimhalhar.

8. I beg, however, to bring to notice the provisions of section

105 of the Civil Pension code, which lays down that if an officer who is entitled to Compensation Pension
accepts instead another appointment in the public service (whether qualifying or not) and subsequently becomes again entitled to receive a pension of any class, the amount of such pen-sion shall not be less than he could have claimed if he had not accepted
the appointment?

According to this section the applicants Raju Pillay and Mara-
-simbalhar are not entitled to the com-pensation sought by them as explained hereunder.

9. Raju Pillay had, upto 31st August 1879
when his pay was reduced from Rs 75 to 70 owing to reductions, put in a service of ^{75 - 90 - 25} 18 - 2 - 0.

If, instead of accepting the reduced pay, he had elected to retire
on Compensation Pension then he would have been entitled only to a one-third pension of Rupees 24 - 4 - 5:
while the half pension to which he is now entitled under the rules amounts to Rs 35/- which is more than the above amount of Rs 10 - 11 - 7 per mensem.

10. Likewise for the ^{75 - 90 - 25}
service of 22 - 4 - 27
rendered by Chamasimha Bahar upto 31st

Rs 25-0-0
 17-9-11

 7-6-1

August 1879 when his pay was also reduced from Rs 60 to 50, he would have been entitled only to a one-third pension of Rupees 17-9-11 per mensem. The amount of half pension viz: Rs 25/- entitled to under the rules is therefore not less than the former amount, which he could have claimed
 had he not accepted the appointment of reduced pay.

Submitted orders.
13/7/85

I beg to add that the case of Venkataswami cited as precedent in the cases under reference is quite different altogether. On 1st September

1879, when his pay was reduced from Rs 30 to 25, Venkataramanick had put in sufficient service viz: 26 - 2 - 22 in half pension. If then, instead of accepting
the reduced pay, he
had elected to retire, he would have been entitled to the same

pension as that allowed him subsequently.
But in order to make up a slight difference in the amount of pen-sion caused on account of his pay having been reduced by Rs 5. The period during which he was on reduced pay was regarded as time spent on duty with a salary of Rs 30, so that his pension shall not be less than he could have claimed

if he had not ac-cepted the appointment.

In submitting herewith for orders the application for pension, together with enclosures on behalf of A. Narasimha Chari, late Deputy Accountant in the District Office, duly verified by the Comptroller, I have the honor to state, with reference to the Comptroller's remark at the foot of the application, that the claim of the applicant for having his pension calculated upon the rate of salary he drew before the reduction of 1879, viz Rs 60, was promised consideration by Government in the correspondence filed with the application and accordingly a half pension of Rs 30 was proposed and is now recommended for sanction.

Letters Nos 70 and 122 dated 4th & 25th May 1882⁸ from the Deputy Commr. of Mysore District. ✓

Order thereon: Camp No 1031-32 27th 10th Sept 1888

524 With the above letters, the Dy. Commr. submits applications for pension on behalf of Raju Pillay, Rev Head Accountant and
A. Narasimhaiah, Revenue Dy. Accountant, in the District Office, duly verified and reported upon by the Comptroller.

2. Prior to the reduction of Establishments in 1879, Raju Pillay was drawing a salary of Rs 75 and Narasimhaiah, Rs 60 per mensem. In Sept 1879, their salaries were reduced to Rs 70 and 50 respectively.

3. The ^{amount of} pension allowable to Raju Pillay under the rules as reported by the Comptroller is Rs 35 per mensem, and that to Narasimhaiah

Rs 25 per mensem; computed in both cases at half of the average emoluments during the last 5 years of service, that is to say, half of Rs. 70 in the case of the former and ^{half} of Rs. 50 in that of the latter.

The Dy Commr. recommends that pensions equal ^{to half} of the salaries drawn by these Officials prior to September 1879 may be sanctioned in consideration of the good service done by them.

4. Under the circumstances represented, the Dewan is pleased to sanction that Raju Pillay's and Narasimha Charu's pensions be calculated on the pay they were drawing previous to the Reductions of 1879. Such a concession was once before made in another deserving case, and it is fair to extend it to these two cases also. The Rules for retirement of officers in connection with the reductions of 1879 gave certain concessions, and the further concession now sought in the case of those who suffered by those reductions is, in the opinion of the Govt, such as may be extended to the cases of Raju Pillay and Karasimha Chary. It must however be understood that this is a special concession which ought not to be given to every case as a matter of course, but reserved for specially deserving cases only.

5. The Comptroller will be requested to revise his Certificates accordingly and submit the pension applications for sanction.

Addressing to Dewan's prosanctioning the retirement of Raju Pillay, Head accountant, of the District-office, I have the honor to report, that Annual and monthly accounts, and remission statements being heavily in arrears, I have had to stop pay of the account department, for July, and August, and the arrears have not been brought up. I am keeping Raju Pillay on, for a few days more, in the hope that the arrears may be brought up to date, and the pay earned. If this hope is not fulfilled

And filled by the end of this month, it will be my painful duty to confiscate his pay altogether, and allow pension from 1st July.

I have the honor to be
